

Fall Quarterly Report

Student Chapter President Jared Horvitz
Representative Gilberto Gil

Florida Gulf Coast University American Society of Civil engineers

During the past quarter Florida Gulf Coast University ASCE has.

- Attended three local branch meetings and 1 young members meeting
- Designed and are reaching out to local sponsors to begin construction on the 2015 steel bridge
- Designed and began concrete mix design for the 2015 concrete canoe
- Began concrete canoe race practices
- Hosted a local section joint branch meeting
- Hosted a local engineering internship fair for all students
- Began construction on the 2015 cardboard boat for the cape coral cardboard regatta
- ASCE FGCU has organized and orchestrated the Fundamentals of Engineering review secession for students and the public.

Florida Gulf Coast University ASCE Would Like to recognize to recent graduate Robin Palmer for becoming the first Southwest Florida Branch Young Member Chair.

For the upcoming quarter Florida Gulf Coast University ASCE has planned.

- A winter camping trip for all members
- A tour of the marine concepts boat manufacturing facility
- Pouring the 2015 concrete canoe in December to prepare for the conference
- Touring the local CEMEX quarry and production facility

Regards,

Florida Gulf Coast University Chapter
American Society of Civil Engineers
ASCE@eagle.fgcu.edu