

Academic Interoperability Coalition

Call for Papers and Posters

14th BIM Academic Symposium

Monday-Tuesday, 6-7 April 2020

University of Oklahoma

Norman, OK

The Academic Interoperability Coalition is sponsoring its annual Academic BIM Symposium to be held on Monday, April 6 and Tuesday, April 7, at The Gibbs College of Architecture in Norman, OK.

The papers and posters will be viewed worldwide to further academic models and generate dialogue about the issues with changing the way we conduct research and educate students to support BIM use in the AECO industry. The Symposium topics focus on the opportunities BIM is creating to improve productivity, data collection and long term-planning for resilience in the built environment.

Papers: Researchers, academicians, students, and practitioners in the AECO industry are invited to submit papers (no less than 6 pages, no more than 8 pages) describing best practices, experiences, case studies, and research projects in one of the six topics listed below.

Posters: Students of the built environment are invited to submit posters describing their research, academic projects, and practical experiences with BIM in one of the six topics listed below.

- BIM Education and Training
- BIM Use and Industry Case Studies
- BIM for Creating and Maintaining a Resilient Built Environment
- BIM and Smart Cities
- BIM Data and Informatics for the Built Environment
- The Future of BIM
