

Spring 2015 Quarterly Report

Student Chapter President Jared Horvitz
Representative Jared Horvitz

Florida Gulf Coast University American Society of Civil engineers

During the past quarter Florida Gulf Coast University ASCE has.

- Attended three local branch meetings and 1 young members meeting
- Completed the design for the 2015 ASCE Steel Bridge, obtained steel from a local sponsor and has begun the construction of the Bridge.
- Completed the months of designing and testing for the 2015 Concrete Canoe and on December 6th poured the Concrete Canoe
- The construction for the 2015 Cape Coral Cardboard Regatta was finished in early November in preparation for the race coming up in April
- FGCU ASCE Holds weekly student meetings for any student to attend in conjunction with the weekly workdays were each of our yearly projects is completed
- Hosted a local engineering internship fair for all students as well as a "Concrete 101" class for all students interested in the concrete mix design and casting processes.
- FGCU ASCE has organized and orchestrated the Fundamentals of Engineering review secession for students and the public.
- FGCU ASCE has toured the Marine Concepts boat manufacturing facility as well as hosted a joint tour with the local young member's chapter of the Fort Myers International Airport.

For the upcoming quarter Florida Gulf Coast University ASCE has planned.

- A winter camping trip for all student and local branch members.
- Touring the local CEMEX quarry and production facility

Regards,

Florida Gulf Coast University Chapter
American Society of Civil Engineers
ASCE@eagle.fgcu.edu